Reference G: Year 2000 Platform Compliance

The HUD Year 2000 Platform Compliance document presents the Year 2000 compliance status of software applications which support multiple HUD applications. Because the document is updated continuously it is not actually published here; instead, it is maintained on the HUDweb. Surf the Team 2000 HUDweb site at http://hudweb.hud.gov/po/it/platform.htm for the most current version. Another site which may provide helpful platform compliance information is located at www.policyworks.gov. Call the Team 2000 Platform Management Group at the Team 2000 Project Office at 202.755.2000 or send us a cc:Mail message at Team_2000@hud.gov for further information.
